

Calling all craftspeople to eggstravaganza

CALLING all craftspeople! Here's your chance to apply for a place at a prestigious Easter feast of Carmarthenshire crafts.

The crafty Eggstravaganza at St Clears on April 3rd will feature the cream of local crafts on scores of stalls.

Principal arts officer for the county council Eleri Retallick is urging craftspeople to contact her to make sure of getting a stall at the event. She said: "This is wonderful opportunity for rich variety of craftspeople we have in the county to come together and show just was a glorious jewel box of talent we have.

"Pentre Road, will be thronged with stalls and local voluntary groups all putting on a show, as well as music and street entertainment. It will have a real festival feel and street party atmosphere."

Eleri also wants local musicians and artistes to contact her if they are interested in playing a part on the day.

Demonstrations and activities arranged include wood sculpture, dance sessions, interactive drumming, stilt walking, a pavement artist a balloon artists and willow artist. The Carmarthenshire Centre for crafts now based in the middle of St Clears will also be abuzz with things to do and see.

The event is a unique partnership by the Authority, St Clears Town Council and St Clears & Laugharne Business Chamber.

* Anyone interested in taking part in the Carmarthenshire Crafts Eggstravaganza, should contact Eleri on 07748 270439.

PRESS NOTE: For further information please contact Carmarthenshire County Council leisure services press officer Ron Cant on 01267-224923 or 07811101531