

Summer Workshops for Children and Adults

Saturday 9th July 10am – 4pm

Reduction Woodprints with printmaker Alan Williams

Participants in this one day workshop will produce a multicolour woodcut using the reduction method. This technique which was pioneered by Picasso during the 1950's and enables a colour print to be made from just one block rather than the traditional method which uses a separate block for the printing of each colour.

Cost £20.00 including all materials. Suitable for ages 16 and above. Booking is essential.

5th August

Shadow Landscapes with Helen Astley

4 - 6 years 10.30am – 12.30pm

7-10 years 1.30 – 3.30pm

Join artist Helen Astley in creating a large-scale abstract landscape inspired by the work of Roger Cecil, with artist Helen Astley, using an overhead projector, torn paper, paints, and shadow makers! Please bring a photo of a favourite view or place you like.

Cost £5.00, booking is essential. Parents and carers are welcome. Children under age 7 should be accompanied by an adult. Accompanying adults free!

11th and 12th August 10am - 3.30pm with half hour break for lunch

Multicolour Collagraph Prints with Alan Williams

Suitable for ages 11-16

This printmaking technique is based on collage with the emphasis on bold shapes and textures.

The first day will be spent designing and making the collagraph printing block which is then sealed with varnish.

On day 2 the blocks are inked and printed onto paper using a small printing press. Everyone will produce a number of prints from their printing block.

Cost £20.00 for both days.
